

The Doctor, The Patient and The Workplace

Interactions between Quality of Care, Professional Satisfaction and Organizations

20th 21st May 2019, Oslo

The Organising Committee and Abstract Review Committee cordially invite submission of abstracts for oral presentations, workshops and posters for the EAPH Conference in Oslo, May 2019.

This conference will focus on interactions between quality of care, professional satisfaction and organizations.

Topics include:

- Medical education - care quality and doctors' health

Coping with work-life balance and delivery of good quality care.

- Medical practice and patient care

The doctors' role in organizations; the impact of this on themselves and patients.

- Professional needs and doctors' care

The balance between professional and personal needs in relation to quality of care in a changing healthcare system.

- Other topics including, but not restricted to:

Artificial intelligence – different aspects, challenges and benefits of technology in the interactions between quality of care, professional fulfilment and organizations

Abstract Submissions are split into three categories:

1. Oral Presentations
2. Workshops
3. Posters

Oral presentations

15-20 minutes will be allocated for oral presentations depending on the numbers accepted for each category and time limitations.

Workshops

Workshops last 60 minutes and should aim to encourage interactive collaborative learning.

Posters

Poster presenters are allocated a 5-minute oral presentation in front of their poster, during a dedicated poster presentation session. The required poster format is A1 or A0 in size and in portrait format. Your poster is to be displayed during the entire duration of the conference - from Monday to Tuesday. The organising committee will assist you with mounting your poster. Please note that you are responsible for having your poster printed and transported to the conference venue.

Abstract Guidelines:

The Abstract Review Committee will select appropriate abstracts according to the following guidelines where appropriate:

1. Clarity of submission
2. Relevance to the conference theme and topics
3. Innovation (regarding aim, topic or methods)

Listed below are the instructions for abstract submission:

1. Deadline for all submissions: 14th of December.
2. All abstracts must be submitted by email to: lefo@legeforeningen.no
3. Maximum length: 300 words. Title: maximum 200 characters (incl. spaces).
4. The abstract should be submitted and presented in English, structured according to the following headings:
 - Aims(s) and Introduction: indicate purpose of the study or hypothesis tested - or aim of workshop.
 - Methods: Include study setting, subjects (number and type), diagnosis or intervention, statistical analysis where appropriate - or organisation of workshop.
 - Results: Present results / outcome as clearly as possible or expected results (learning objectives) of a workshop.
 - Conclusions: briefly discuss data and emphasize significance of the results – or impact of the workshop for daily practice.
5. Standard abbreviations are accepted in the text. Unusual ones must be mentioned in brackets when used for the first time. Do not use abbreviations in the title.
6. Do not enter references in the abstract
7. Author/presenters whose abstracts are accepted for presentation must register for the conference and pay the registration fee.

Notification of abstract status:

Confirmation of acceptance or rejection by the Abstract Review Committee will be emailed to the corresponding author. Detailed practical information regarding the presentation will be included in the confirmation.

All corresponding authors will be notified via e-mail of the decision of the abstract review committee by 8th February 2019.
