

EAPH conference 2019, Oslo 20th – 21st May

The Doctor, The Patient and The Workplace – Interactions between Quality of Care, Professional Satisfaction and Organisations

TOPICS

The conference will focus on interactions between quality of care, professional satisfaction and organizations, such as:

No 1. Medical education – care quality and doctors' health: Coping with work-life balance and delivery of good quality care.

No 2. Medical practice and patient care: The doctors' role in organizations; the impact of this on themselves and patients.

No 3. Professional needs and doctors' care: The balance between professional and personal needs in relation to quality of care in a changing healthcare system.

No 4. Other topics: Including, but not restricted to: Artificial intelligence – different aspects, challenges and benefits of technology in the interactions between quality of care, professional fulfilment and organizations

DETAILED PROGRAM:

Sunday 19th of May: 18:00 – 20:00: Registration – Upload of presentations and poster assembly (Registration desk / Service center, Thon Hotel Opera)

Monday 20th	ROOM 1 (80-220 pers) "Flagstadsalen"	ROOM 2 (48 pers) "Kvinten 1"	ROOM 3 (24 pers) "Kvinten 2"	ROOM 4 (24 pers) "Kammeret"
08:30	Registration - continued
09:00	Welcome to the 7th EAPH conference: Karin Isaksson Rø , director, LEFO – Institute for Studies of the Medical Profession Official welcome: Marit Hermansen , president, Norwegian Medical Association
09:15	Opening lecture – Key note speaker Edvin Schei, MD, PhD: "Doctoring as leadership - practical wisdom in medical relations"
10:10 Parallell oral sessions	No 3: Professional needs and doctors' care Chair: Karin Isaksson Rø 3. Fighting fit - national cross-sectional study on presenteeism and wellbeing in hospital doctors in Ireland Lucia Prihodova, Ireland 10. Empowering physician to improve mental work environment Sofie Hjortø, Denmark 15. Health of health professionals – ReMed: the support network for physicians Accompanying research in Switzerland Peter Christen, Switzerland 2. Precision Initiatives: Empowering Learners, Increasing Ownership through Personalization of Learning, Assessments and Leadership Development Programs, Enabled Using Digital Technology Khurram Jahangir, Canada	No 1: Medical education – care quality and doctors' health Chair: Berit Bringedal 8. Feeling well is not enough: How open minded medical students really are? Vicky Spatoula, Greece 24. Does burnout affect clinical reasoning? An observational study among residents in general practice Philippe Guillou, France 36. Treating resident physicians with mental disorders and/or addictive behaviors: the Galatea Clinic experience (1998-2018) Maria Dolores Braquehais, Spain 37. Increasing risk of poor mental health among resident doctors along residency in Catalonia, a longitudinal study 2013-2017 Anna Mitjans, Spain	No 2: Medical practice and patient care Chair: Fredrik Bååthe 19. Referral of Patients with Cancer to Palliative Care: Experiences of Swedish Physicians Karin Adolfsson, Sweden 20. Physician Health Programs and Malpractice Claims: Reducing Risk through Monitoring Elizabeth Brooks, PhD / Sarah R. Early, PsyD, Colorado, US 39. A Prototype of the Surgical Hazardous Attitudes Reflection Profile (SHARP) Instrument Kirsten Dabekaussen / Renée A. Scheepers / Kiki Lombarts, Netherlands 52. Complex cases shared management from therapeutic and regulatory perspective. 20 year experience of shared responsibility. Gustavo Tolchinisky, Spain	No 4: Other topics Chair: Reidar Tyssen 1. SafeSpaceHealth App: An anonymous and unfiltered digital safe space for healthcare and allied health providers to connect, share, support and enhance their professional fulfilment Khurram Jahangir, Canada 14. The future coverage and recruitment of doctors in family medicine in primary care in Denmark - seen from the junior doctors' point of view Kim Agerholm Brogaard, Denmark 32. Stress at work raises the risk of health problems among doctors: A UK cross-sectional study Asta Medisauskaite, UK 82. The 21st Century Physician - Empowered Physicians in the Digital Health Era Zsuzsa Györffy, Hungary
11:35	POSTERS – coffee break

	ROOM 1 (80-220 pers) "Flagstadsalen"	ROOM 2 (48 pers) "Kvinten 1"	ROOM 3 (24 pers) "Kvinten 2"	ROOM 4 (24 pers) "Kammeret"
12:05 Parallell workshops	No 3: Professional needs and doctors' care 74. A "Baker's Dozen" – a performance enhancing self-skill set Mark Stacey / Thomas Kitchen , UK	No 2: Medical practice and patient care 21. Designing an Appropriate Evaluation Tool in Understand Organizational Impact on Physician Health Elizabeth Brooks , PhD / Sarah R. Early , PsyD, Colorado, US	No 3: Professional needs and doctors' care 17. An evidence based check-up for docs in an Amsterdam university hospital: how to implement a health surveillance program for hospital physicians using occupational health Hans Rode , Netherlands	No 4: Other topics 33. "Working stress": exploring staff wellbeing through the medium of a board game Asta Medisauskaite / Lucy Warner , UK
13:00	Lunch
14:00 Parallell oral Sessions	No 2: Medical practice and patient care Chair: Tom Rapanakis 72. Facing emotionally challenging interactions with patients: emotion transfer and its association with well-being in health-care providers Sonja Weilenmann , Switzerland 78. How do hospital doctors experience the interactions between professional fulfillment, organization and quality of care? A qualitative study Fredrik Bååthe , Norway 79. Realistic Medicine: Reconnecting Doctors with their purpose Helen Mackie / Lauren Glen , UK 80. To screen or not to screen - Norwegian doctors' recommendations to their patients Berit Bringedal , Norway 47. "A tale of doctor's empathy and waiting rooms" – Quantitative research in a Paris district Patricia Pame/Jean-Marc Josset France	No 1: Medical education – care quality and doctors' health Chair: Friedrich Wurst 81. Why don't Norwegian doctors choose general practice? A study based on cross-sectional survey in 2016/2017 Cecilie Normann Birkeli , Norway 41. Development and pilot of a well-being program for hospital-based physicians Maarten Debets , Netherlands 43. In our Own Words; UK doctors talking about our own mental health Louise Freeman / Angelika Luehrs , UK 50. Self-health promotion and prevention by general practitioner: comparisons with general population Anne-Laure Lenoir , Belgium	No 3: Professional needs and doctors' care Chair: Thomas Kitchen 13. A Danish national review of the working environment and work-life-balance for junior doctors becoming specialist in family medicine Kim Agerholm Brogaard , Denmark 46. Invisible pain – a doctors' journey through the many facets of health Catriona Herron , Ireland 56. Organization of work and physicians' health. Boarding methodology in a public hospital in Argentina Hector Alberto Nieto , Argentina 60. A Systematic Review of the Impact of Mindfulness-Based Interventions on Physicians' Well-being and Performance Renée A. Scheepers / Kiki Lombarts , Netherlands 75. Long-term mental health effects of mindfulness training: A 4-year follow-up of an RCT in medical and psychology students Reidar Tyssen , Norway	No 3: Professional needs and doctors' care Chair: Pilar Lusilla 4. Impact of Mantra Meditation Personal and Workplace Wellbeing of Emergency Department Staff in Ireland: Mixed methods study Lucia Prihodova , Ireland 7. A decade of delivering care to doctors Clare Gerada , UK 26. Psychotherapy in physicians with addictions: the Galatea Clinic intervention program Christo Manuel Cruz Alonso , Spain 31. Exploring the potential of peer group reflection: physicians' experiences with guided reflection on their professional performance Elisa Bindels , Netherlands 57. Out of hours workload among Norwegian GPs Ingrid Keilegavlen Rebnord , Norway
15:30	POSTERS – coffee break
15:50-16:45 Parallell workshops	No 3. Professional needs and doctors' care 42. Doctors' Professional Performance in Turbulent Times: Exploring Performance Evidence, Needs and Counterproductive Forces Kiki Lombarts , Netherlands	No 3. Professional needs and doctors' care 22. Balancing the needs of the individual and the team: implications for professional behaviour Megan Joffe , UK	No 2. Medical practice and patient care 18. How the break the conspiracy of silence among possible impaired physicians; an peer intervention strategy to help your fellow physician Hans Rode , Netherlands
17:15	Departure from hotel reception – The Harbour Promenade from Bjørvika to Oslo City Hall
18:15 – 20:00	Reception at the Oslo City Hall with a guided art tour – Mandatory to sign up in advance, free of charge, bring your conference card for identification, mandatory cloakroom
20:30	Dinner at Restaurant Lofoten - Additional booking necessary

Tuesday 21st	ROOM 1 (80-220 pers) "Flagstadsalen"	ROOM 2 (48 pers)"Kvinten 1"	ROOM 3 (24 pers) "Kvinten 2"	ROOM 4 (24 pers) "Kammeret"
08:30-09:25 Parallell workshops	No 1: Medical education – care quality and doctors’ health 51. "The Valued and Appreciated (V&A) Group” - An Innovative Peer Support Reflective Practice Model for Physician Wellbeing utilising Medical Humanities and Arts for Health Linda Miller, UK	No 4: Other topics 62. Virtual Support Forum for Doctors:Managing transitions – finding balance – a highly interactive online course offering a safe space to share experiences and develop strategies to deal with change Kathleen Sullivan, UK	No 1: Medical education – care quality and doctors’ health 70. The relationship between body fluid exposure, shift pattern and time of accident Ali Hashtroudi, UK
09:30 Parallell oral Sessions	No 1: Medical education – care quality and doctors’ health Chair: Maria Dolores Braquehais 71. Factors associated with intention to leave medical school among Norwegian medical students Inger Heimdal, Norway 48. Wrestling with the medical self – Highlighting key factors in medical education towards enablement in doctors health Margaret Kay, Australia 49. Strengthening wellbeing in medical education; What works? Consequences, intentional and unintentional Thomas Kitchen, UK 76. Increase of mental distress among female medical students in a 20-year span: findings from two Norwegian faculties Reidar Tyssen, Norway	No 3: Professional needs and doctors’ care Chair: Gustavo Tolchinisky 5. No one wants to "rock the boat". Workplace incivility and barriers to change in radiology in Ireland – mixed methods national study of trainee and consultant radiologists Lucia Prihodova, Ireland 23. Doctors and their defences Clare Gerada, UK 61. Health care utilisation of general practitioners – a qualitative study Sven Schulz, Germany	No 3: Professional needs and doctors’ care Chair: Anna Mitjans 63. A Qualitative Study on the Surgeon Experience During the Treatment of Prosthetic Joint Infections Karin Svensson, Sweden 67. Politicians wish for greater patient empowerment – how physicians respond? Kathinka Meirik, Norway 55. Autistic Doctors – Not an Oxymoron Shirley Moore, UK 25. Health and Self-Care for Health Professionals Andrew Tresidder, UK	No 1: Medical education – care quality and doctors’ health Chair: Tom Rapanakis 40. Work-Related Stress (WRS) and physician: scientific literature review and critical analysis of results Hector Alberto Nieto, Argentina / Simone De Sio, Italy 66. Supporting Junior Doctor Wellbeing Jaimee Wylam, UK 9. Does Empathy Change During Undergraduate Medical Education? – A Meta-Analysis Vicky Spatoula, Greece
10:45	POSTERS – coffee break – hotel check out
11:30	Plenary lecture – Key note speaker Stein Knardahl, MD, PhD: "Motivation, health and human capital - how do work factors contribute?"
12:15	Best poster Award - Conclusions and closing – Karin Isaksson Rø General EAPH Assembly – EAPH Officers: Pilar Lusilla / Friedrich Wurst
13:00	Lunch

ACCEPTED POSTERS:

11. Onboarding – increasing the quality of the introduction

Sofie Hjortø, Denmark

12. Time´n´Clock

Sofie Hjortø, Denmark

16. Health of health professionals – ReMed: the support network for physicians Accompanying research in Switzerland

Peter Christen, Switzerland

27. When the glass is half full: Increasing professional recognition in physicians

Paraskevi Angelopoulou, Greece

28. Disruptive behaviors in caregivers on technical platforms in France

Segolene Arzalier-Daret, France

29. The Observatory of suffering at work: assessment at one year after its implementation in French public hospitals

Segolene Arzalier-Daret, France

34. Weathering the storms: Waterproofs, Warm clothing and Welcome mats help!

Jan Birtle, UK

35. Linking doctor’s work-life balance and care quality: why is it such a challenge in the case of Frenchfamily doctors? A sociological eye on an inherited model and some adverse representations

Geraldine Bloy, France

38. Dignity in clinical training environments: the role of the SOS (Sanitary protection On Site) box

Josie Cheetham, UK

45. Burnout in European Junior Doctors – a review of burnout data from ten countries

Ellen McCourt, Belgium

64. Investigating social support of Hungarian medical students, as a protective factor against burn-out

Zsuzsanna Szél, Hungary

77. A preliminary case study of organizational development in a physician health organization (Doctors4Doctors)

Mattias Rommens, Belgium

EXECUTED BY:

ORGANIZED BY:

LEFO

Institute for Studies of the Medical Profession